SPOTLIGHTING SUSPECTED SO DEPUTY ACTED

Ukiah Woman Superficially Wounded By Ranch Guard

HAD MUCH POACHING

Lawless Hunters At Ranch Numerous Is The Report

Special Correspondence of The Press

WILLITS, Sept. 13. — The shooting which took place on the Howard ranch Wednesday night was the principle topic of conversation here the following day for all of the parties involved were raised here.

The Stories Vary.

There are many conflicting reports and the one generally agreed on is Mrs. Lucy Mahan, accompanied by her husband, baby and two other men, were riding in an automobile on the road which goes to Leonard Lake and turns off the Redwood highway at Reeves canyon.

Fights Off Poachers.

This road crosses a large portion of the Chas. S. Howard ranch and Mr. Howard employs a number of riders to keep deer hunters off his property. All of these riders are instructed to stop poachers and violators of game laws and practically everybody living in a radius of 25 miles, or more, knows this to be a fact and in addition to this the ranch is plastered with trespass notices.

Saw Alleged Spotlighters.

One of the guards, Joe Akins, a Willits boy, was stationed that night on this road and had received the usual instructions. He was accompanied by Waldo McKenzie, when they saw a car in which they allege were spotlighters. Guard Akins says he first ordered the driver of the car to halt, which he failed to do and he then attempted to shoot a hole in the back tire but his aim was too high and the bullet entered the rear of the back seat and then pierced Mrs. Mahan in the buttock. She was taken to the county hospital and the wound is now said to be not of a serious nature.

Arrested The Guard.

Sheriff E. L. Williams was summoned and placed Deputy Akins under arrest, but no particular charge was lodged against him, pending outcome of Mrs. Mahan's condition and if the wound proves to be of a superficial nature Joe Akins will probably be turned loose.

Lived At Willits

The Mahan family, former Willits residents, have been living in Ukiah and Calpella the past year and the auto party drove up from Ukiah that night.

New Owner On Ranch.

A FRIENDSHIP OF STRANGEST NATURE SEEN

Droves Of Birds And 15 Chipmunks In Long Hegira

HOW DID THEY DO IT?

Songsters, Little Furred Animals Travel Many Miles

(Clear Lake Observer)

That little wild creatures, both furred and feathered, will hunt for and find the human friends who have moved away from a former habitation seems something new in the "adventure tales" of out-of-doors. The new chapter of animal life comes from Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Patterson who, not so long ago, moved into a new home on the state highway south of Lower Lake.

Lived Retired Life.

For a considerable number of years, Mr. Patterson, a retired attorney, and his wife had lived "back and beyond" on a small ranch about five or six miles from their present abode. There they had made friends of the small wild creatures, and particularly of a colony of chipmunks and many birds.

Believed In Them.

Birds and furry things had come to look upon the Pattersons as their friends and providers. They haunted the door steps, frolicked or sang close to the house and ate fearlessly from the hands of their protectors. Humans, animals and birds were all part of one somewhat isolated family.

Came After Them.

The Pattersons had been in their new home but a short time when they found innumerable varieties of birds had followed their change of habitation. First there were a few of the birds, then a horde of them, singing for their provender, alighting on shoulder or hand the moment either member of the family stepped out of doors.

They Came Later.

It took the chipmunks longer to discover where the Pattersons had moved. But one day they arrived — all 15 of them — and having proved the identity of their benefactors they promptly "dug in" to establish new permanent homes close to friends and a generous food supply. How they traced the Pattersons is not discoverable but perhaps "a little bird told them."

Brought In Destroyers.

Now comes a bit of pathos. Folks from the cities are prone to take their unwanted cats into the country and unceremoniously dump them beside outlying highways to shift for themselves. These cats "go wild." They prey on quail, doves, small pheasants, squirrels — whatever wild life they can slay for food. And two such cats were tossed from an automobile near the Patterson home. Already they have made inroads on the chipmunks, several having been caught and eaten by the felines. So far Mr. Patterson has not been able to trap or shoot the marauders.

Will Not Co-operate.

Of course it never does any good to suggest to folks there are ways to dispose of undesired cats other than to toss them out on a country road. Some folks have little understanding. What's a trusting chipmunk or a songbird to them; what the protection of game birds?

Mrs. R. S. Thompson Is Seriously Sick

Richard S. Thompson, engineer with The Western Union Telegraph Co., and temporarily stationed at Wallace, Idaho, came here last week to see Mrs. Thompson, nee Frances Rea, and little daughter. Mrs. Thompson is being cared for by Mrs. C. E. Roberts and appears facing a long illness. Mr. Thompson had to return to his duties in Idaho, but will come back later.

DROWNED IN EEL

Vernon Davidson was drowned in Eel river Sunday afternoon while swimming near Leggett Valley. The body was not discovered until Monday. Funeral services will be today at 10 a.m. at the Eversole Mortuary, Rev. Theodore Matlock officiating.

HELD MISTRIED ANOTHER CASE—WAS REVERSED

Appellate Court Orders Local Judge To Correct Error

LAW IS POINTED OUT

Evidence Did Not Support The Rulings Of Held At Trial

The long list of reversals of Judge W. D. L. Held, superior court judge of this county, was again added to when the Third Appellate Court "reversed with instructions" the trial conducted by Held in the case of W. W. Cottingham against Mrs. Gertrude H. L. Smith, whose husband owned the Fountain ranch.

The Point Involved.

The suit arose out of a fee claimed by Mr. Cottingham, a real estate operator, who alleged he had the ranch sold to an Anderson Valley man and it was, by Mrs. Smith, sold to another party, thereby depriving Mr. Cottingham of his fee.

Explained The Law.

After pointing out what the law governing the case is, and which the lower court failed to follow, the Appellate Court said: "We are of the opinion the evidence does not support the findings and judgment (in Held's court). * * * The judgment is reversed and the court (Held) is directed to render judgment in favor of the defendant."

A Costly Mistake.

Because of the errors Held made the litigants were put to the expense of an appeal and a new trial, if one is undertaken.

The Attorneys Involved.

Judge H. L. Preston and Lilburn I. Gibson were attorneys for Mrs. Smith and Charles Kasch represented Mr. Cottingham.

ESCAPE GETS A LONG TERM

Man Who Fled Local Jail Must Serve 17 Years In Texas

Manuel Ward, who with a companion prisoner, escaped from the Mendocino county jail one year ago, recently ran afoul the law in the state of Texas and is now serving time in prison at Huntsville.

Came From Coast.

September 7 of last year "Buster" Ward and John Eugene Crowley escaped from the county jail here and made their way through the ventilator to freedom. Mr. Ward had been an inmate of the jail just four days after being held to answer to a felony charge from the court of Justice W. W. Ware, of Fort Bragg. His companion in flight, under charges of grand theft, was brought to the jail by Patrolman Charles Ciancio.

Taken In City.

Word from Texas is "Buster" Ward has been sentenced to serve 17 years on two counts of robbery with a gun and one count of robbery by assault.

MANY WILL SAY "OKAY"

PREGNANCY AND SICKNESS accompanying pregnancy, is not illness but "a state of nature or a physioogical fact," Superior Judge A, F. Bray, of San Francisco, has ruled. Two school teachers, Mrs. Lucille Axelrod and Mrs. Beatrice Lasky, petitioned the court to have their pregnancy regarded legally as illnesses to put them under a separate section of the state school code by which they would be benefited.

The pregnancy section of the school code provides a teacher must stay away from her duties six months before and six months after the childbirth.

The two teachers sought to have their cases placed under the illness section of the code which provides anyone absent due to illness more than five days shall receive full salary, minus an amount according to the rules of the governing board. Mrs. Axelrod and Mrs. Lasky each lost a full year's pay prior to and after childbirth.

Judge Bray denied their petitions for a writ of mandate, holding they were not entitled to any portion of their pay under the illness provision. That the decision of Judge Bray will meet approval goes without sayng. On every side there are those who believe a married woman should not be employed in schools because she cannot properly attend to her household duties and her school demands at the same time and, in addition, when a man marries a woman he should support her and not deprive a single woman of a chance to make a livelihood.

SHOULD HAVE A HOT FALL CAMPAIGN

(The Santa Rosa Republican)

MANY INTERESTING ISSUES will be involved in the campaign for election between now and November. Voters who thought the recent primary campaign was a heated one will really see the fur fly when state candidates start going to town on some of the controversial issues that will be before them. We thought we had something hot when the argument was under way over the Townsend pension plan in the last election. This year we still have the Townsend plan, but we also have the $30 Every Thursday plan, which has even greater controversial possibilities. There will also be the matter of giving Tom Mooney his much discussed pardon. A matter that has for many years been a nationwide topic of political argument certainly should stir up some excitement in California.

THE CANDLEMAKER

MOST OF US DO NOT REALIZE it was just a few decades ago that fire ceased to be the sole source of artificial lighting. The electric bulb made a late appearance on the modern scene. Of all the forms of lighting, the wax candle was one of the earliest, considered to be of Phoenician origin. It wasn't until two centuries after the birth of Christ that the tallow dip came into use. The modern candle is itself a direct successor to the rush light, which consisted of the pith of rushes soaked in household grease.

But the candle is no mere historical relic, for there has just died in New York an Italian craftsman who directed the creation of more than 1,000,000,000 candles. Antonio Ajello was of the fifth generation of artistic candlemakers, who began carving their works at Sorento 160 years ago. Theirs were secret processes—methods of timing candles, of causing them to exude a delicate perfume of lilac, jasmine or perhaps sandalwood, of sculpturing the wax. Ajello never sold a candle of the same design to two customers and for one of his masterpieces $10,000 was not an unusual price. He it was who built the tallest and heaviest candle in the world, 18 feet high and five feet in circumference, weighing a ton, a memorial to Enrico Caruso. On All Souls' Day in a Pompeiian church it is lighted once a twelvemonth and it is expected to last 1000 years.

No, candle-making is not a lost art, nor has the candle, for whatever purpose, succumbed to the infinite variations of electrical illumination. When a solemn requiem is sung for Candlemaker Ajello the air in the church will be redolent with the aroma of orange blossoms from more than 100 of his own tapers. His candles threw their beams far.

"I'D LIKE TO GET AWAY FROM IT ALL"

THE SANTA ROSA REPUBLICAN the other day said: "In the last few years we have heard several people say: 'I wish I could take a boat and sail to some far-away island where I would never hear about the depression and war threats and labor disputes and taxes and other disagreeable things that tend to make people miserable in this modern mixed-up world.'

"Dwight Long, 21-year-old Seattle college student, said that same thing in 1934. He decided to start roaming around the world in a 32-foot ketch to escape the depression and its attending woes.

"That was four years ago. Dwight Long is now 25. He came sailing into New York harbor last week and said the depression couldn't possibly worry anyone as much as he had been worried on his four-year trip. His experiences include a hurricane at sea, fever, a mistaken and brief but almost fatal imprisonment by Spanish rebels, and several other brushes with death from various sources."

Everyone, at some time or other in life, comes to the conclusion they would be better off, if they were doing something else—There are, no doubt, many people who have started on a wrong course and who should call the thing quits and start over along different lines. But most of us only imagine the grass is a little greener in the other fellow's yard.

The man who sticks, in the final analysis, generally wins.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, who is a director of the State Board of Prisons of California.

HE WAS GOOD AND BAD

As he came into the Board room at Folsom I recalled him as a prisoner who had been mixed up in the counterfeiting plot at San Quentin when, under the regime of ex-Warden J. B. Holohan prisoners had operated an extensive counterfeiting plant in the photo-engraving department of the printing office. He had been sent to San Quentin for having taken part in a highway robbery. One night an Oaklander got off a street car to walk a few blocks to his home when a man stepped from behind a tree and, pointing a gun at him, said: "Come on, Buddy, I will take you for a ride." The unfortunate pedestrian was made walk about a block with the bandit when they met two other robbers and he was forced into a waiting automobile. He was taken some distance and robbed of $270 and a valuable watch. He was then driven close to a car line and given 10 cents carfare to get home. A few days afterward the inmate was arrested. His companions were not captured, the prisoner in the room today refusing to give the police any information. It was while doing time for this offense he got mixed up in the prison counterfeiting affair.

It is all over now, so it will do no harm to say the Prison Board was satisfied at the time some of the counterfeit money had been taken out of the prison by a minister, but we could not get the needed proof. All of the men involved in the affair knew how to do time and would not give the officials any information. Some of us, recalling the counterfeiting, thought this was a good opportunity to secure facts we had been unable to obtain when the sensational case broke.

We led him along, but he was a wise convict and he knew, just as soon as we started, what we were after.

He kidded the board members and we jollied him a short time.

Then a director shot the question to him, hoping to catch him off guard and in a companionable frame of mind: "A minister took some of that stuff out for you, didn't he?" The convict did a lot of mental window dressing, right off the bat. He got a look in his eyes that perfectly gave one the impresison he was studying hard. He did not grow a bit nervous. Then he said: "Now I know the bills were gotten out, of course, but I did not have anything to do with that part of the job. I could not tell you gentlemen just who took out the bills." He instilled so much effectiveness in the way he put his talk over he almost made us believe he regretted he could not give us the facts we were after.

We saw we could not get any information from him about the counterfeiting case so we went back to his own offense.

"There were three of you boys in the Oakland hold-up, were there not?" I asked him.

"Yes," he replied.

"Of course, you do not know who the other two were, do you?"

"Yes, I do," and he called me by name, "but you would not want me to tell on them, would you?"

He looked right at me and waited for me to answer him. He put so much wounded honor inflection into his words, if you had heard the answer and not been acquainted with the situation, you would have applauded what you would have been convinced was resentment coming from a man whose integrity had been impugned and who had been hurt at an insinuation regarding his character.

He had me.

"No," I said, "I don't believe I do. "I just wanted to see how good a sport you were. I really am glad you did not tell me."

He was a bad criminal and a good faker.

Len Michaelson motored to Santa Rosa Sunday and passed the day with relaltives there.

K. Farley, employed in a Fort Bragg pharmacy, was a countyseat visitor Sunday.

To Stop Practice.

For several years our fire department has been hampered in its work by curious auto drivers and pedestrians rushing to the scenes of fires every time the siren is sounded. This matter has been discussed by the hour at council meetings and again came up at the last meeting. We have an ordinance governing this matter and our polic officers have been instructed to see it is strictly enforced. At a recent fire the fire department was blocked in their efforts by a throng of the curious.

AS THEY TELL IT TO PEOPLE

Under the "$30 Every Thursday" program, all Californians over 50 years of age who were not working would receive a weekly $30 pay check from the state in scrip. To finance the scrip, a two-cent tax stamp, bought with real money, would have to be affixed to each pension dollar every week. Theoretically, at the end of the year, when the money was turned back to the state, every scrip dollar would have brought the state $1.04 in hard cash, more than enough to buy back the pension "money." The scrip would be legal tender for taxes in California.

They Grow 'Em Big Down South Africa

George Elledge has found plenty of interest on the Gold Coast of Africa since going there a few months ago with the Natomas Dredging Company. A letter received by his sister, Mrs. Fred Weldon, recently tells of the killing of a 22½-foot boa constrictor by a native in his crew. Mr. Elledge is a twin brother of Officer Joe Elledge of this city.

SEASON OVER

Hop picking is at an end in the Ukiah valley. Hops, generally, are selling at 20 cents. The season was short and the yield ordinary.

YOUNG THIEVES STRIPPED CARS

Pair Of Wandering Youths Active At Rockport

A complaint made by Walter Pearl, of Rockport, Friday sent Constable P. A. Stenberg to that place to investigate a theft case. Someone had stripped Mr. Pearl's car of tires.

Quickly Located Offenders.

Investigation by Constable Stenberg caused him to take into custody Wallace Sutro, 16, and Warren Harris, 17, both of Humboldt county, who have been staying in the Rockport district quite a while and seemed to be making their living selling old automobiles, according to statement made by Constable Stenberg.

Now In Jail.

The boys were taken to Fort Bragg and placed in the city jail. They were later taken before Judge W. W. Ware to answer the charge made by Mr. Pearl and both pleaded guilty. Constable Stenberg brought the boys to Ukiah and turned them over to the juvenile officer. They were placed in the county detention home to await action of the juvenile court.

Have Hidden Parts.

The boys, according to Constable Stenberg have been stealing gasoline from cars and also parts with which to condition the old "wrecks" they were working on. A number of people have made complaints of pilfering from their cars in and around Rockport, said Officer Stenberg, and he is planning on making investigation within a day or so. He believes he will find some of the parts hidden in the woods near Rockport as the boys are alleged to have intimated such was the case.

TALKED POLITICS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Sandelin are home after an enjoyable visit to the State Fair. At Sacramento Mr. Sandelin, who is Mendocino county campaign manager for Governor Frank F. Merriam, conferred with Republican leaders.

IN SAN FRANCISCO

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. O'Brien went to San Francisco yesterday with President F. W. Hammond, of the John A. Roeblings Sons Co. and will this morning take part in the plaque ceremony at the Golden Gate bridge.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to get rid of excess poisonous body waste. They are antiseptic to the urinary tract and tend to relieve irritation and the pain it causes. Many grateful people recommend Doan's. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Ask your neighbor!

LA BELLE SCOTT WED AT BEAUTIFUL HOME CEREMONY

Candlelight gleamed brightly, the sweet and stately wedding march sounded, voices of a hundred guests murmured then hushed at the beauty of the scene Sunday afternoon, as Miss La Belle Scott entered on the arm of her father, A. D. Scott, to walk the length of the beloved family home, passing under an archway of jasamine vine to where Harry Roberts waited to claim his lovely bride. Rev. Richard A. Van der Lds performed the ceremony as the couple stood before masses of pink and rose gladioli accented by clusters of rich blue agapanthus against the wall of glossy huckleberry, flanked by three immense tapers on either side. A mirror back of the floral screen reflected myriads of candle lights.

The attractive bride wore a gown of delicate lace and net, with pearl and brilliant clips at the neckline. Her shoulder length veil of tulle was held by a coronet of lilies of the valley and her bouquet was of the same flower to which were added bell shaped Hephonytes lilies.

Flower petals were strewn in the path of the bride by little Elise Towne, charmingly dressed in blue net on empire lines and wearing a pretty hat, bows of pink matching the Cecil Brunner roses decorating her golden basket, adding a dainty note to her costume. The bride's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Marjorie Milne, of Santa Rosa. She wore peach net over taffeta, her hat having a saucy French bouquet at one side, and her flowers being white stock and ageratum centered by a pink rosebud.

Ronald Bowers was best man. He is a close friend and partner of the groom in the jewelry firm of Roberts & Bowers of this city. Mrs. Mabel Ames Smith played Lohengrin's wedding march.

Mrs. Scott, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue sheer velvet, exceedingly becoming to the attractive white-haired matron. Mrs. William Palmer, the groom's mother, was dressed in a lovely shade of soft rose.

A lace tablecloth covered the long buffet table from which a wedding supper was served. Zinnias and argeratum were the lovely centerpiece and white tapers spread light over the festive array of three-tiered bride's cake, a huge wedding cake rich with fruit and made by the groom's mother, other cakes and plates of assorted delicacies. Baskets of flowers were against the walls to add to the decorative scheme. Mrs. D. C. Smth, William Hacker and Mr. and Mrs J. R. Thomas arranged the flowers, which were supplied by Mrs. Daisy McCallum, of Mendocno City.

A movie camera clicked as the newly married couple sped to their waiting car in a shower of rice, the bride now gowned in a cinnamon ensemble trimmed in Persian lamb with black accessories. The bridal bouquet was thrown in the midst of outstretched hands, and caught by Mrs. Cecil Owen. Following a honeymoon at Del Monte and Monterey, the young people will return via Carmel and Salinas the end of the week. They will occupy the recently built home on Dora street between Perkins and Standley streets, which will be attractively furnished by suites of furniture and other household articles received from relatives and friends as wedding gifts.

Out-of-town guests, mostly realtives, included Mr. and Mrs. Lester Scott, Mrs. Olive Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Milan Brown, Herman Blazick and sons, Bobby and Vernon, of Oakland; Mrs. Marion Day and son Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Dennen of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hatton, Mrs. Olga Milne and Marjerie and Roy Milne and Mr. and Mrs. William Hacker of Santa Rosa; La Verne Scott, brother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Scott of Petaluma; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Baker and Mrs. Lucy Carlsen of Fort Bragg; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott of Salinas; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hazel, of Lakeport, and Mrs. Annie Barnes of Healdsburg.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will hold a benefit card party at Veterans Memorial building, Thursday, September 29. Prizes and refreshments will be among attractions of the evening.

TOM POULOS TO CLAIM BRIDE SUNDAY

A ceremony of simple beauty will be that in which Miss Kalliopi Leventi, of Vallejo, exchanged marriage vows with Thomas Poulos, Sunday, at St. Sophia Greek church on Valencia street, San Francisco. The rites will be performed by Rev. C. Tsapralis, uncle of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poulos, of Ukiah, will be present as witnesses. Miss Despina Tsarna, of San Francisco, will be maid of honor, and George Harris, of Oroville, best man.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance which has grown since Mr. Poulos met his lovely bride-elect in the east last year. Following her arrival from England, Miss Leventi was visiting relatives in Pittsburg, and it was at their home the two were introduced. The young lady is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Z. Leventi, of Egypt, and she is a cousin of Mrs. Alex Tsama, of Willits.

The acquaintance was renewed last spring when Miss Leventi toured this section of the country with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Glaros, of Vallejo, with whom she had been visiting a number of months, and who are old friends of Mr. Poulos. It was not long after this second meeting the two became engaged.

Mr. Poulos is a prominent merchant of Ukiah, many years associated with Paul Poulos, as a member of Poulos Bros., proprietors of The Maple Cafe. He is actively affiliated with local clubs and is well known as a public-spirited citizen of the community.

Following a fortnight's honeymoon trip to Crater Lake and the Columbia river, the newlywed couple will reside at 320 South School street, where Mr. Poulos has prepared an attractive home for his bride.

EAGLES AUXILIARY DANCE

Members of Eagles Auxiliary will meet tomorrow evening at Steiert Hall to discuss plans for a series of dances honoring members of various townships. The first will be held at the high school auditorium, Hopland, Saturday, September 24, honoring members of Cloverdale and Hopland. Pacini's orchestra will furnish music. Later dances will be held in Redwood Valley, Ukiah and other localities. Tickets will be sold to defray expense of the affairs only, and will be available to the public to stimulate interest in the organization.

Mrs. Irene Schmidt will preside at tomorrow's meeting when Mrs. Carrie Blackson and Mrs. Lucille Bingham will be initiated. On conclusion of the evening's formalities, a ravioli supper will be served by a committee comprising Mesdams Irene Schmidt, Mary De Carli and Alva McClellan.

LIONS HEAR ECONOMIST

"The Value of Self-Confidence and Optimism" was the subject discussed at the Lions Club luncheon meeting Thursday at The Palace Hotel, when Mrs. Jerome Crays, of Pasadena, home economist, addressed the group. The speaker was in Ukiah preparatory to her demonstration class before women of the community Monday afternoon at the Saturday Afternon Clubhouse. Attorney Wayne P. Burke, program chairman, presented the lecturer to the Club. When reports were called for, it was learned from E. A. Eversole a nice sum had been added to the Club's charity fund from the carnival sponsored by Lions at the recent Twelfth Agricultural District Fair.

MOTOR TO PACIFIC GROVE

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Christensen motored to Pacific Grove Friday with Mrs. Johanna Christensen, of Ferndale, mother of Mr. Christensen, who has been a guest at their home the past fortnight. Mrs. Christensen will remain for an indefinite stay with another son, Chris Christensen, at Pacific Grove, with whom the E. B. Christensens passed the weekend.

REVISIT OLD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. James Clay came from their home in Modesto last week for a visit with friends in Potter Valley where they lived many years and where they once owned the present Ingels ranch. They now have large fruit ranches at Modesto. Friday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moncrief.

MUTUAL EXECUTIVE COMPLIMENTED BY TWO GROUPS

A gala event was the banquet and reception honoring International President of Lions Clubs Walter F. Dexter last evening at the Saturday Afternoon Club rooms at which Club members from Eureka to Santa Rosa were present with their guests. The guest of honor is here to attend Teachers Institute as State Superintendent of Public Instruction and it was through County Superintendent of Schools John W. Taylor, Lions had the privilege of meeting their leader. President Al Pioda of Ukiah Lions extended an invitation to seven other units to be present at the reception and all responded with delegations.

Delightful solos were sung during the dinner hour by Andrew Robertson of San Francisco, song leader and soloist of the Institute, and proudly accepted as a former resident of this valley. Piano accompaniments were by Mrs. Katherine Harvey, accomplished musician and deputy superintendent of Mendocino county schools.

Grand finale of the evening was adjournment of those attending the Lions banquet to the grammar school auditorium to join in the dance complimentary to the visiting teachers from Humboldt and Mendocino counties and sponsored by Ukiah Chamber of Commerce. Swingtime was provided in popular rhythms by The Californians.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Miss Jean Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thornton, and Miss Betty Brazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving M. Brazier, took advantage of the four-day holiday the end of the week to leave their studies at the University of California for a visit with their parents here.

The previous weekend, which extended over Labor Day, Miss Thornton joined the family party at the summer cabin of her parents at Blue Lakes. She motored there with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Deacon, of Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Eversole and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Reynolds of San Francisco, were dinner guests that Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Irving M. Brazier were entertained at dinner the following day.

TRIO REUNITED

An interesting faculty trio is that of Miss Audrey Hollenbeck and Miss Laura Kaiser of the high school, and Miss Katherri Macklin of the grammar school, who are again together at their Dolores apartment following the summer vacation. Miss Hollenbeck arrived Thursday evening from Alameda where she has been a guest at the family home, accompanied by Miss Claire Pauli, instructor of household arts at the University of California, the two staying the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Pauli, parents of Miss Pauli. Sunday Miss Kaiser reached here after several wonderful months in England, and Miss Macklin came from Middletown where she has been visiting relatives.

HOME FOR A WEEK

Enjoying the past week at the home of her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Earl P. Thurston, was Miss Jean Thurston, who came from Los Angeles where she is with the Massachusetts Bonding Company. Also a guest at the Thurston home for the week was Jack Gildea of San Francisco.

MRS. F. BRICARELLI RETURNS FROM AN ITALIAN TOUR

Welcoming Mrs. F. Bricarelli home from Europe Monday, when they met her in San Francisco just two months after they had wished her "bon voyage" on the streamliner Challenger at the same place, were Mr. Bricarelli, daughters Yolanda and Giovanna, Mrs. John Poma, of Redwood Valley, mother of the traveller, and the Misses Jane and Mary Poma, of San Francsco, her sisters.

Sailing early in July on the Conte de Savoia, Mrs. Bricarelli docked at Genoa where she was met by her brother-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mario Bricarelli, who accompanied her to the family home at Villafranca, D'Asti, Italy. Here she passed the greater portion of her stay abroad, having especially planned the trip to be present at the golden wedding of Mr. Bricarelli's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Bricarelli.

A visit to Switzerland to see an aunt, Miss Maria Poma, and sightseeing in Rome were among highlights of the delightful vacation. Both going and coming Mrs. Bricarelli was entertained in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rapetto. Mr. Rapetto is vice-president of California Grape Products Company, of which Mr. Bricarelli is superintendent of the local unit. Upon landing in New York last week Mrs. Bricarelli wired her family of her safe arrival, sending the message from the top of the Empire State building and saying she could "almost see home." She arrived in New York on the fine Italian steamship Rex.

Lane, of Binghampton, New York, her brother, that far as they started eastward after a visit of nearly two weeks at the Giorno home. The Ukiahans returned Sunday evening, stopping at Marysville for dinner. The easterners enjoyed several excursions with their host and hostess. One day was passed in San Francisco, another in Oakland, still another at Fort Bragg and other points along the coast. A trip was made to Richardson's Grove and Lake county was seen enroute here when the visitors came via Yosemite. They concluded "California has everything."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Handley Jr. and Mrs. Charles Falk Jr. of Eureka stood as sponsors for the child. The event was also a birthday celebration for the host and a formal opening of the Mann's beautiful new home in St. Francis Wood. Among the many scores of guests were Mayor and Mrs. Angelo J. Games were part of the afternoon fun when young guests were bidden to the Thurston home. Refreshments were served at a table decorated in yellow, and centerpieced by a miniature lake on which tiny figures were mirrored. Yellow tapers lighted the scene and tiny candles of the same hue sparkled gayly atop a wonderful cake.

He spoke of much needed improvements being made at Yountville, the only hint of politics entering his address being the promise of an adequate water supply for the Veterans' Home if the state sales tax were not repealed. The Ukiahans visited Dr. C. H. Crawford, former druggist of this city, and C. R. Smith, also one time resident of Ukiah and a Civil War veteran, who are at Yountville.

Following the show the youngsters enjoyed refreshments. Table decorations were pink and green, the colors being carried out in cake and candles. Mrs. Faas, Mrs. Isnard and Mrs. Maude Roberts are delegates to the American Legion Auxiliary convention there at the same time.

CHOOSE COUNTY HEADS

Nominating committee of Federated Women's Clubs of Mendocino county met Saturday at "Shore Acres," charming coast home at Little River of Mrs. Leroy Woodhead, president. Officers for the years 1939-1941 were tentatively agreed upon, announcement of the same to be made at the fall convention to be held in Mendocino City, October 15, instead of October 22 as originally planned.

Present were Mrs. Lon Gibson, president of the Saturday Afternoon Club, and Mrs. John Finne, president of Kosmos Club, both of Ukiah; Mrs. W. J. Forney, president of Mendocino Study Club; Mrs. Thomas O'Bayley, president of Sorosis Club of Fort Bragg; Miss Anna Walker, president of Greenwood Club; Mrs. Walter Higgins, state corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Woodhead, county president.

Mrs. Woodhead entertained the group at a prettily appointed luncheon. A lace cloth was used over the lovely old walnut table, green glassware and a bowl of mountbretias blending into the charming color scheme. The room, which is in yellow and brown tones, was simply decorated in greenery, mountbretias and yellow roses. From the windows could be seen the distant surf pounding along the rocky shore.

TO LEGION CONVENTION

Bound for Los Angeles to attend the American Legion Convention of the state Friday and Saturday, and remaining for the national convention the following week, are a number of representatives of the local post and its auxiliary.

Newly elected Commander John Isnard, Legion delegate, accompanied by Mrs. Isnard, Auxiliary president and delegate, and Mrs. Joseph Figone of Talmage, left yesterday for the southern city. Following a merry game of Dutch whist, and awarding of high prize to Miss Julia Broggi and consolation prize to Mrs. Joe Brush, the honoree received the shower of many gifts for her new home.

An attractive refreshment service was enjoyed at the card tables, which were centerpieced by dainty bouquets of mixed flowers. Masses of zinnias and amaryllis were interestingly placed about the rooms. Feting Miss Dennen were Mrs. Joe Brush and the Misses Marjoie Messick, Marguerite La Bastie, Carol and Connie Grothe, Sydney Sanford and Julia Broggi.

The guest of honor has named Sunday as her wedding date. Rites will take place at the Presbyterian church at four o'clock in the afternoon. The affair will be a social event in which a large number of bridal attendants will participate.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"Pension" Or Racket

It has been sarcastically doubted whether proponents of the "ham and eggs" constitutional amendment understand the multiplication table. Can they add? Just suppose it is adopted; that a certain merchant is asked by one such "pensioner": "Will you accept my weekly scrip squeeze scraps in payment for merchandise? He ponders: "It sounds 'phony'; Governor Merriam, President Roosevelt and Senator McAdoo all condemn the plan as unsound. But Olson says it is O.K. I am game to try anything once. I say yes." Each week that one "pensioner" takes $30 worth of goods and hands the merchant squeeze scrip scraps. Unable to dispose of them before the next Thursday, he puts on 60 cents of stamps bought with real money. He tries to turn the scrip over to wholesalers who say: "Much of our goods are purchased outside the state where such 'fiat money' is no good. We cannot take it." Another Thursday arrives. Another $30 worth of goods is exchanged for $30 of scrip, $1.20 is next stamp tax paid. So on to the end of a year, when the first $30 is paid by the state. Question: What will be the total stamp tax paid in before the state begins paying back?

Solution: Whether there will be 52 or only 51 such stamp taxes paid depends on how the time of issuance and time of payment hitches up with Thursdays. Take the lesser number. On the scrip last stamped 60 cents was paid; on that stamped one week earlier $1.20 has now gone; on that one week still older $1.80, etc., until on the first $30 issue $30.60 at least has gone for stamps. If he has not paid stamp tax amounting to $795.60 up to the time he can cash the first $30 of scrip then I can't count. Deducting that $30, he is then out $765.60 in hard cash, and has had nothing but scraps of paper for $1560 worth of goods! True, after the year is up future payments coming in will much lessen the loss weekly; but still every piece of scrip which is not paid for 52 weeks takes $1.04 in stamps to keep it good for $1 at the end of a year; and less than nothing is left to pay for goods "purchased" with it. If that merchant finds any one to accept it at face value, he will only cheat one as simple as himself. If accepted for taxes, treasuries will fill with waste paper, except for the "pension fund." If half the salaries of officers can be "paid" with such scrip, they will simply have their salaries halved. The plan is so "fantastic" that it is foolishly funny.

Query: Are half the salaries of teachers to be paid in scrip squeeze scraps, too? If so, will it serve them right for not teaching arithmetic better? It is said that 169,568 supporters are paying a penny a day into a campaign fund, $1695.68 per day, $50,870.40 per month, possibly leaves room for a sizeable "racket." In the two long months just passed would it not exceed $105,000?

(No, I did not have to find that $795.60 by addition. I once learned a shorter method; but that requires a use of multiplication.)

Farm Plan Across the Sea

By HARLEY L. LUTZ
Professor of Public Finance, Princeton University

(Special Correspondence)

LONDON, England—As soon as the American visitor in England begins to read the English newspapers he learns that the English have an agricultural problem, and he immediately feels at home. The only difference is that the English problem is stated as the exact reverse of our own. In the United States, we are troubled by production, and the major contribution of our agricultural statesmen has been the ingenious ways devised to reduce output while paying the farmers more for producing less. In England the complaint is that production is declining, and support is being drummed up for some policy that will stimulate a larger total crop.

The pro-farm group of politicians are playing up the importance of agricultural capacity for defense purposes. It is true that if the land were to be absolutely neglected, a sudden, natural increase of production could not be obtained in case of a blockade. But England's defense rests also on munitions, for supplying which the sea lanes must be kept open. If this is done, food as well as munition materials can be imported.

Beyond doubt, the country can produce more foodstuffs than at present. The real issue is the price that it is proper to pay for the increase. The preferred plan to induce the desired result is a higher tariff. The political friends of the English farmer would keep out the bacon from Denmark, the wheat from America, and the beef from Argentine until rising prices would call forth greater home productions of these articles.

No one seems to have considered the effects of such a policy on the standard of living of all other British citizens. In fact, an agricultural tariff would enforce a serious burden upon the entire industrial and urban population.

If we put together the English and the American situations, the two policies of agricultural aid are equally stupid. But if we seek a solution for both nations the answer is obvious. The American farmer needs a larger market, while England needs more foodstuffs. If our farmers had freer access to 40,000,000 more consumers, the need for AAA, for processing taxes, and for governmental regimentation of agriculture would disappear.

Of course, England could pay for her purchases of our farm products only by sending us some of her own goods in exchange. This would do us no harm in the end. A strong revival of our agriculture would absorb some of the unemployed. It would also create a greater demand for our own manufacturers, and there is no clear evidence to prove that the volume of domestic manufacturing would be adversely affected by accepting English goods in payment for our surplus farm products. Indeed, there is more reason for thinking that this elimination of the taxes which business now pays to support both agriculture and the unemployed, would leave American manufacturing in a better position than it now enjoys in its fully protected home market.

Under the circumstances, the initiative towards a solution of this joint problem could be taken by either country. It would be good business and good political strategy for us to make the first move. Continued inaction will only stimulate greater effort to make the Empire self-sustaining. Once this has occurred, the chance of the American farmers at this large and strong English market will be lost completely. Already our mistakes have cost the farmer and the taxpayer heavily, but it may not be too late to regain this lost ground.

A. & J. AT VICHY

Mrs. K. N. Hengeveld will entertain the A. & J. Club Tuesday next when members gather for their first meeting of the season. The hostess has planned to have the gathering at Vichy Springs, where a delightful luncheon will be served the group.

Against The Bonds

Ukiah, California,
September 12, 1938.

We, the Advisory Board of the Ukiah Townsend Club, have adopted the following resolution:

That we oppose the bond issue for $65,000 to be voted on September 16, 1938. Why saddle more and more on taxpayers backs in these times? In conclusion we give the following reasons:

We have a definite plan to lessen crime 50%. We know 75% of all crime is for more money. Put money in circulation so all can work and earn good salaries, put those in jail that don't want to work, let them build their own jail up on Feliz creek above Hopland out of rocks that are choking up the valley and washing away good land. We know jails do not cure crime, we also know that no one was born a criminal, therefore will not steal. For humanity's sake have less jails, no poor houses, no charity, no poverty in the land of plenty. All work for the 2% transaction tax, put money in circulation and create buying power, in short the Townsend Plan.

G. K. Thomas, President,
Ukiah Townsend Club.

Carlson's Orchestra Sponsoring A Dance

Music timed to modern swing steps, and tunes suited to old-time dances will draw many to Steiert hall Saturday evening when Carlson's three-piece orchestra sponsors a dance there. Guitar, horn, violin and piano will blend in the attractive harmonies.

Approve The Bonds

In considering the proposition of incurring a bonded indebtedness at the special election of September 16, the voters of Mendocino county will do well to remember that the supervisors have submitted the proposition in an endeavor to do away with all rents now paid by the county for building space as well as for the care of prisoners. The building to be constructed with more than $52,000 contributed by the United States Government plus this bond issue will contain, in addition to the jail, office space enough for three of four of the county offices and will enable all of them to be housed in the county courthouse.

Having this in mind, a vote for the bonds will be a vote for economy, for the moneys now paid in rents and care of prisoners will pay the entire cost in the later years and put an end to this continued expenditure.

PEOPLE say modern lighting that is "easy on the eyes" makes the eyes feel better... And they are right... Good lighting brings out the beauty of the home furnishings... It aids personal beauty, too.

Light that is glaring brightness or that is dim and gloomy makes hard work of seeing. It causes squints and frowns and scowls and brings on many premature wrinkles and face-lines.

Good, modern lighting merely means the right kind of light, and the right amount of light where you read or sew or use your eyes. And you can have it easily, quickly, inexpensively. A Home Lighting Recommendation chart made out for your home will fit lighting to serve the exact seeing-needs in your home. This is a free service and there is no obligation. Hundreds are taking advantage of this service. Why not you?

Mr. Stewart, now... he stutters

Some folks you gotta learn to like, but not Mr. Stewart. He stutters terrible, but nobody notices much, because they like him.

The first time he came in my station, I tipped him off to our oil.

"Everybody has to do a lot o' stop-and-go drivin' these days," I started in, "an' that means they need a special oil."

"B-B-B-But..." says Mr. Stewart.

"When you stop and let your engine cool off," I hurried on, "your oil drains down off the movin' parts, leavin' 'em practically dry."

"B-B-B-But..." says Mr. Stewart.

I interrupted him: "And when you START, you oughtn't to have to WAIT to have your oil get moving. It oughta FLOW—faster'n greased lightnin'."

"B-B-B-But..." says Mr. Stewart.

"Yessir," I cut in, "and only a quarter for a quart, too. Ain't that something!"

"B-B-B-But..." says Mr. Stewart, laughing at me, "I-I b-been using G-Golden Shell for s-six months."

So I laugh, too.

Sincerely,
Your Shell Dealer

Mrs. A. W. S. Foster Dead.

Death came Wednesday morning to end years of suffering, patiently borne, for Mrs. Louisiana Scott Foster at the Hopland Stock Farm, of which her son, Paul Foster, is manager. Mrs. Foster was born in Louisiana, 90 years ago, a daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. William Anderson Scott, the founder of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Came From England.

Dr. Scott's daughter, Louisiana, married Arthur William Foster, who came to San Francisco from across the seas as a young man to quickly become associated with some of the leading business and civic interests.

Donated The Land.

However, Mr. Foster did not allow business to occupy all of his attention. He became greatly interested in the Theological Seminary his father-in-law had founded and desiring to bring it to Marin county where he had established his home, he gave to the seminary the land on which it now stands in San Anselmo. The seminary was moved there in 1891.

A Famous Home.

The A. W. Foster home in San Rafael, which had been the Mailliard residence, was remodeled and enlarged and became one of the city's show places. It became a center for dispensing hospitality and many celebrities were entertained there, and Mrs. Foster was always the charming and gracious hostess.

Controlled Railroad.

Mr. Foster acquired extensive ranch holdings and then became interested in transportation. He secured control of the San Francisco & North Pacific Railroad known as the Donohue Line and merged it with the narrow gauge out of Sausalito. When railroad transportation was in its heyday he was president of the line which dominated the north coast area, the Northwestern Pacific. Mr. Foster was also the president of the Marin County Water Company for many years and for 30 years was regent of the University of California. His death a few years ago ended a long and eventful career.

A Home-Loving Woman.

Mrs. Foster, beloved by all who knew her, found her greatest interest in her family and her church.

Moulting Season Is Here

DUE to the necessity of growing a multitude of new feathers, hens at this time should be fed a ration rich in protein. Since feathers are nearly 100% protein, it takes a protein-rich food to grow them.

POULTRY VI-MA-TIN

furnishes protein, minerals and vitamins in abundance.
VI-MA-TIN will shorten the moulting season and will get the hens back in production days earlier than under ordinary conditions.
Shorten your moulting season this year. Start feeding VI-MA-TIN now.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

PLAN TO DEFY THE PRORATE!

Vineyardists Will Not Submit To Extermination

Grape growers of Sonoma and Mendocino counties will defy the state prorate. On the grounds the prorate has no definite program, the growers of dry wines of these two counties will deliver to wineries in spite of the prohibitive regulations of the program.

Intend To Fight.

Claiming only one winery in Sonoma county has signed up with the prorate, opposition leaders are confident of acceptance of deliveries. Further claim of opposition leaders as voiced by Harry Mathews of Redwood Valley Saturday nght, was that the prorate has no program as the original sum sought by prorate officials from the federal government proved inadequate, and the second request of the prorate, which sets a higher figure, has no assurance of approval in Washington.

Getting Reinforcements.

With backfire from wineries apparently apathetic and uncertanty of the federal allotment, the prorate is beng strongly attacked by the oppositon leaders who launched a campaign in Sonoma and Mendocino counties that has now spread to include Contra Costa, Santa Clara, San Luis Obispo counties and to other dry wine regions of the state.

What Plan Is.

At Saturday night's meeting, leaders voiced approval of a plan to deliver to wineries in defiance of the prorate up until such a time as a program was released, and sue for damages if caused interference by the prorate unless a program is released.

International Relations

MANY eminent people in the political and economic spheres have for years been endeavoring to place before a waiting and anxious world constructive ideas for establishing friendly international relations on a secure and practical basis. But, so far, none of the material methods which have been experimented with have succeeded in breaking down the fear of aggression, or the thoughts of bitterness in the human heart. That these fundamental errors need to be overcome is certain, if the world is to experience the lasting peace and prosperity which humanity has so long desired.

That there is a sure way of solving this most important of all world problems is unquestionable, since there is no unsolvable difficulty. The Apostle John in profound yet simple language, which a child can understand, clearly shows us this way. Tenderly he pleads (I John 4:7, 8), "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

Some may say that love is all very well in its very intimate place between friends and relatives, but of what effectual use is it between nations? Further, it is sometimes argued that ideals, ambitions, and characteristics vary so widely in each country, that it is impossible for even the closest neighbor to understand another nation's differing needs and aims, and how to deal with them.

But are we not conclusively told that love, understood in its relation to Love, God, can overcome all barriers, and form that lasting link necessary for world peace? It is the unselfish desires and united aims of men which break down the temporary obstacles of language and material tradition. In the first century of the Christian era Paul discerned this fact, for he wrote, "Whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away." But "charity [love] never faileth" (I Corinthians 13:8). . . .

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, writes on page 340 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfils the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself;' annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry,—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed."

Since the knowledge that God, divine Love, is indeed the Father of all, foreshadows the gloriously liberating effects mentioned in this illuminating passage, it is not impracticable, but divinely potent and natural. This broader realization of true brotherhood, wherein each one seeks his own progress in the good of another, because all are brethren, will in due course solve every national and international problem relating to frontiers, colonies, and economic supplies.

When in a human family there is discontent, lack of affection, or a general disregard for the progress and welfare of each member, it is easy to see that the whole future of that family's success and well-being is liable to totter. Sadness and joylessness have undesirable effects on health and happiness. But if one and all have a common basis for true affection and selfless service, the family will prosper, and will steadily increase in health, freedom, and tranquility.

Thus it should be with the great universal family—the brotherhood of nations. Each one should work for the general good, realizing that all the children of God have their rightful place in the divine plan, wherein there is fullest liberty, progress, and true prosperity for all. Since God is good, good is inexhaustible and permanent, and is given in equal measure to all by the loving Father. But in order that boundless good may be fully utilized for the benefit of every nation, man must be clearly understood as not material and imperfect, embodying mortal passions and hatreds, but as wholly spiritual and perfect, the reflection of God and the embodiment of all right ideas.

When love, reflecting the divine, governs the hearts of men and is practised in daily life, every human difficulty will be dissolved. The full understanding of the ever-presence of divine Love is destined to dispel all sense of discord, whether of an individual or a collective nature, banish fear and distrust, and put an end to political intrigue and the desire for alliances and counteralliances. As humanity wakens to recognize "one Father with His universal family, held in the gospel of Love" (ibid., p. 577), good will and lasting peace will be established on earth. — The Christian Science Monitor.

LARGE AMOUNT SET

the world, and theatre men are convinced that this $250,000 contest will force direct attention to the focal point of the entire industry, the box office.

How It Is Done.

The contest itself is simple enough for each and every theatre patron in this country and Canada to be able to participate. The movies have ingeniously seized upon the currently popular quiz craze and have fashioned from it their own version, suited to their own particular needs. The contest takes the form of a questionnaire concerning 94 pictures to be released by nine different studios this fall. More than 50,000,000 attractive booklets listing the productions to be presented, along with questions to be answered and rules to follow are being distributed free in local theatres. Thirty of the 94 films must be seen by contestants to make themselves eligible for the various prizes. Inasmuch as The State Theatre is sponsoring this contest, entrants will be able to see the necessary contest pictures at their favorite theatre.

Some Of The Films.

This is the first time in its history the Motion Picture Industry has utilized the facilities of producer, distributor and theatre exhibitor as one unit to bring befoe the public its new product. The following films are a few of those to be released during the span of the contest: "Professor Beware," "Mr. Chump," "Little Miss Broadway," "I'm From The City," "The Crowd Roars," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Algiers," "Spawn Of The North," "Carefree," "Four Daughters," and 83 other hit pictures, all of which will be shown at The State Theatre here in Ukiah.

Fred Loring, correspondent of The Republican Press, was in town a few hours Friday from Willits.

PHEASANTS TO BE PROTECTED

Associated Sportsmen On Coast To Safeguard Birds

The Fort Bragg Associated Sportsmen last week released 203 pheasants in the Little Valley section, thus fulfilling their promise to sportsmen of that district pheasants would be planted on the coast.

Chicks Did Well.

The birds were taken to Fort Bragg when six weeks old upon promise of Associated Sportsmen they would care for them until ready to release. Two hundred and fifty were in the original lot and out of these 203 survived to be released.

Hunting Banned.

Palmer Mantz and the Union Lumber Company, upon whose land the birds were released, are co-operating with officials in seeing the birds have a chance to thrive and the land has been posted against hunting. Quail hunting will also be prohibited in this section this year.

Broken Belt Was Cause Of A Halt

The main drive belt in the Mendocino mill parted Saturday morning and the mill shut down as a result. The belt was repaired that same day and the mill resumed operation Tuesday morning. All the pine in the boom has now been sawed and the mill is operating on redwood.

HAD AN OUTING

An all-day picnic was enjoyed Admission Day at the Figone picnic grounds by members of the fruit shipping industry and their friends, including those associated with supplies, refrigeration, shook and shipping departments. A delicious barbecue was prepared for the occasion and 60 were present to enjoy it.

HOP PICKING MACHINES DEPRIVE INDIANS OF MAIN CHANCE TO LIVE

Work That Takes Natives Through Winter May Vanish

The new hop-picking machine on the Joseph T. Grace ranch near Windsor, now operating at full blast, is attracting considerable attention. Instead of being a field machine, it is really a hop-picking plant, housed in a building more than 100 feet long.

Brought To Machine.

The vines, laden with blossoms, are brought in from the field by truck. So loaded they may be lifted from the trucks in long festoons and fed into the picker mechanically, the vines are dragged over a series of huge drums and between steel fingers that strip the blossoms from the stalks, the former dropping onto a traveling conveyor which carries the hops past girl operators who pick out any remaining stems and leaves, as well as defective blossoms, the vines being discarded and dropping to the ground after completing their trip through the long machine.

Does Work Rapidly.

Twenty thousand to 35,000 pounds of hops a day can be picked on this machine, depending on the character of the yield and the rapidity with which the vines are delivered at the plant and fed into the rollers. About 50 hands, including five operators on each of four trucks working in the field, are required to operate the machine, which is one invented by E. Clemens Horst of Sacramento.

Will Hurt Indians.

The hop-picking machine will deal the Indians of northern California the most severe blow the race has felt since shortly after the advent of the white men, as it will take from them the main source of their winter's provision income. Men and women natives annually, in large numbers, work in the hop fields and the hop-picking machine will take from them this work.

Worst Of All.

In the south where hundreds of thousands of negroes pick cotton, the black man's chance to make enough to eat will go with the installation of the cotton-picking machine, operated on the same principle as the hop-picking machine, and more than three million negroes will be thrown onto relief. The hop-cotton picking machine will create untold destitution among the most helpless and friendless of workers in the world. It is one invention that should be barred, legally.

Choppy Seas Are Breaking Up Raft

The smaller section of the big log raft which parted off the Mendocino coast and which was towed into Mendocino bay is now pretty well broken up. A good portion of the logs have been floated into Big river but there are 400 to 500 logs scattered on the beaches on the north and south sides of the bay and quite a number of logs have left the bay to land on beaches down the coast. The northwest wind of the last few days has kicked up a choppy sea and helped to break up the raft. The main section of the raft remains intact and is grounded in the sand just west of the river's mouth.

Roosevelt Shows No "Purge" Here

Clarence F. Lea received a wonderful vote in the primary election just concluded. He carried every county in his district for both the Democratic and Republican nominations. It will be recalled Congressman Lea voted against the administration's bill seeking to control the supreme court, but that, seemingly, made no difference hereabouts.

COLORADO IS LEARNING NOW

Two years ago Colorado voters approved a $45-a-month pension for all needy citizens over 60, to be financed by earmarking 85 per cent of the state sales and excise taxes, richest sources of revenue. Within a year, state finances were badly strained. Additional taxes were added, administrative economy measures adopted and even relief payments were cut far below subsistence levels. But despite everything, the load was too great, and old-age pensions began to drop far below the legal level. Last month, Colorado could find enough money to pay only $23.75 to its oldsters. Seizing on this, foes of the law launched a repeal drive, and succeeded in placing a repeal referendum on the November ballot. On election day, Colorado will vote a second time on its controversial plan, said to be the most generous ever enacted into law in American history but far more conservative than California's projected plan of "$30 every Thursday."

Laytonville Has An Artesian Well

Saturday, Ross E. Betts started to dig a well over an old spring on his home property in East Laytonville. On reaching a depth of five feet he struck a vein of water that shot up three feet. Sunday the well was practically full and the water was still shooting up to the surface. This well could easily furnish all of Laytonville with clear, cold, soft water.

Townsend Club Is Against The Bonds

Ukiah Townsend Club advisory committee has adopted a resolution to oppose the bond issue for $65,000 to be voted upon Friday. This action is based on the belief it is better to employ the Townsend plan to put money in circulation with a resultant lessening in poverty and creating of jobs, than to levy further taxes to jail those who, in the majority of cases, commit crimes due to the present economic pressure.

WHAT'S LIFE

(By Chet, in The Prison Mirror)

What's Life, a smile or just a frown,
A shadow on the wall;
A fight to win when you are down,
A climb and then a fall;
A troubled heart that love has stilled,
A road of many bends;
A cup that past regrets have filled,
A night that never ends;
A day of sunny summer skies,
A paradise of fun;
A song and dance — the truth and lies,
A longing just for one;
A prayer that puts your soul at rest,
A tear that sorrow brings;
A joy when you have done your best;
What's Life but all these things?
